EDITORIAL NOTES.

The following, upon the free schools of America, is from R. M. Daggett's new novel, "Braxton's Bar": "The free schools of America! May the grace of God and the good will of men go with them forever! They are as essential to national freedom as the air we breathe. There patriotism is taught with the alphabet; there the beneficence of Republican government is first impressed upon the youthful mind, and there it receives its earliest lessons in the duties and responsibilities of citizenship. And there, too, is taught that first and most important of lessons, that all men are created equal, and that he who would lift himself above his fellows must do so through the royal favor of his intelligence and the untitled knighthood of his own worth."

We hardly agree with an exchange in expressing the opinion that a history of the Jeannette voyage in search of the North Pole would be welcomed by every one, but an official examination into the causes of her loss is a farce, pure and simple, founded on the mutual dislike of two of her officers. Let us call a spade a spade, and confess that because Melville and Dannenhauer are not friends, therefore this excessively stupid investigation has been ordered. An expedition equipped by private capital is in no sense a subject for the United States Government to investigate, even if the officials were officers of our Navy.

Judge Hilton, who some years ago in a rather offensive manner refused to entertain members of the Jewish fraternity at a Saratoga hotel, is endeavoring to make his peace with the Jewish people by contributing $1,000 to the Russian refugee fund. At the same time he takes occasion to deny that he used the language concerning Jews that was attributed to him by the New York press.

The San Francisco Call says Surveyor-General A. J. Hatch, of Nevada, contemplates making his permanent residence in that city after the 1st of January next, when his term of office as Surveyor-General expires.

W. O. Mills, Jr., a nephew of D. O. Mills, is the Democratic nominee for Treasurer of Eureka county in place of Sadler, who resigned to accept the position of Treasurer on the State ticket.

A New York speculator has offered Prof. Huxley, the English scientist, $500 per lecture for a series of 200 lectures in this country, during the seasons of 1893 and 1894.

FLASHES.

Dr. Hamilton claims $25,000 for his services during Garfield's last illness.

Overdunk, the bomb maker, has been sentenced to death at Trieste.

At Pensacola, Fla., yesterday 53 cases of yellow fever and 9 deaths were reported.

Heavy rains in Louisiana, Missouri and Texas, have greatly damaged the cotton crop.

Bob Ford, one of the notorious Ford brothers, is on trial for murder at Plattsburg, Mo.

Wendell Phillips has been nominated for Congress by the Prohibitionists of the Fifth Massachusetts District.

William Hollis has been arrested at San Francisco on a charge of libeling Judge Halsey, of the superior Court.

Judge Edward Hammond, an ex-member of Congress, died in Howard county, Maryland, yesterday aged 70 years.

The ballot in the Oregon Legislature for United States Senator showed no change, Mitnell still holding his 37 friends.

A collision occurred at Benicia Wednesday evening, in which two freight cars were wrecked and an engineer dangerously hurt.

Maud S. will be shipped to Cincinnati some time in December. Her old driver is confident of lowering the record with her.

The death sentence of Walsh, convicted as accessory to the murder of Constable Cavanagh in Ireland, has been commuted to penal servitude.

In the sale of seats by auction at St. Louis for the Slayback benefit, the choice was bought by a lady for $1,000, who donated it back to be resold.

Healey, Brannan and Harrington have been appointed Honorary Secretaries and Biggar and Webb Honorary Treasurers of the Irish Nation League.

Whites are organizing, arming and drilling at Anniston, Alabama, to resist a threatened uprising of the negroes. The latter are armed and demonstrative.

In the suit of Marie Prescott, the actress, against the President of the American News Co., at New York, a verdict was rendered for plaintiff for $12,500.

At a meeting of the Board of Education of St. Paul, Minn., recently a resolution was adopted introducing temperance text-books in some of the public schools of that city.

Polar Coal.

The existence of coal in the Arctic region, and the nature of its composition, constitute one of the most remarkable discoveries in modern geology. The coal seam, it appears, is found in the side of a narrow mountain gorge, prevailing rock of the surrounding district being a shingly clay-stone of very irregular arrangement but mainly dipping to the westward, and so far as it is ascertained, devoid of fossils, though the vegetation presents no less than sixty species of plants. The coal has a bright, shiny appearance, is somewhat of a pitchy character, and very brittle. On analysis it cannot be distinguished from bituminous coal of exceedingly good quality, and is found to belong to the carboniferous period. It contains some sixty-five per cent. of coke, and those who are acquainted with the various coal fields of England trace a strong resemblance between the Arctic and the English.

A Renegade Heard From.

George Cutting, the traveling agent for the wholesale and retail hardware house of Knowles & Bainbridge, Reno, is at Tuscarora, and is mentioned by the reporter of the Times-Review as being one of nine stage passengers whose combined weight amounted to 1,901 pounds; five of the nine being candidates for office. When within a mile and a half of Tuscarora the stage carrying this monstrous load of sin suddenly dropped into a chuck-hole; the pole broke square off; the horses became frightened and took to the sagebrush leaving the coach and passengers in the mud. The driver was pulled from the box by the horses but was not seriously injured. Then commences a fat-man's foot-race for the city on the hill. Candidates, merchants, officers and all went rolling, puffing and blowing into town, where they arrived at 11 o'clock that night, when Cutting, the reporter says, made a straight break for the Can Can restaurant, and when he offered to pay or his meal the proprietor shoved the money back, saying that his license did not permit him to do a wholesale business.

Atry Apartments.

"Can I get a room, I'll make it all right when I receive my funds from Europe," inquired a sooty specimen of humanity yesterday evening of one of Reno's solid hotel keepers. "Yes, I can give you a room-atic," responded the solid man as he booted the applicant out with the well foot that hadn't the rheumatism in it.

In the Field.

Senator John P. Jones and C. E. Laughton, Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor, are announced to speak in the State canvass as follows: Eureka, Oct. 26, Reno, Oct. 28, Candelaria, Oct. 30, Carson, Nov. 1st, Virginia, Nov. 4.

The Republican meeting at the Theater last evening was the largest held thus far in the canvass. John F. Alexander lead off with a very neat speech and was followed by Judge Varian who opened his discourse with a few well chosen remarks in answer to the windy effort of Mr. Beck, champion of the great (?) national party.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the little sufferer at once—depend upon it: there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere. 25 cents a bottle. Jan10-19-Su WPAW

Notice is hereby given that I will receive objections to the right to vote of any person registered on the above list until six o'clock p. m. on the fourth day previous to the day of election, to be held November 7th, 1882, and all persons whose names are erroneously entered in the above list are requested to appear at my office and have such errors corrected.
Wm. H. Youno,
Registry Agent Reno Precinct.

BREVITIES
For other local matter see second page.
The Governor-General and Princess Louise will leave Victoria for San Francisco about the 27th instants.
There are 3,052 voters registered in Storey County, but it is not likely that more than 2,500 will be found on election day.
The ladies of the Baptist Church will give an entertainment at the Baptist Church Monday night, to which all are invited.
Robt. Mack, agent for Andrews & Stockwell's Specialty Company, was in Reno yesterday arranging for the company's appearance in Reno next Wednesday.
W. B. Earp, a brother of the Earp brothers, the famous cow boy fighters of Arizona, passed Reno last evening on his way to the land of the horned-toad and cactus.
Services in the Baptist Church at 11 o'clock a. m. and 7 p. m. Morning subject, "The Two Covenants;" evening, "A Fatal Lack." Seats free and strangers made welcome.
Here is a tongue-tying alliteration that beats "Theophilus Thistle" and "Peter Piper" out of sight. "Bad black boot-blacks black boots badly" Try it,—rapidly, you know.
There will be services at the Congregational Church at 11 o'clock a. m., and 7 o'clock in the evening. Sunday School at 12:15. Welcome to all.
A. B. PALMER, Pastor.
Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend the funeral of Chas. M. Bryant, son of Daniel and Adelia Bryant, on Monday, Oct. 23d, at their residence on Truckee Meadows.
Go to the Palace Restaurant to-day and get some of the five turkey dinner to be served there. It will be gotten up in the finest style, with cranberry sauce (the first of the season) to go with it.
The Enterprise thinks Washoe Valley ranchers ought to be able to make an excellent quality of hamburger cheese. Being near Steamboat Springs, they could place it in some of those crevices and chambers to vomit forth fumes of sulphur and vapors from the caldrons of the bottomless pit.
Clem Lemery has leased the Arcade Restaurant and will open it in fine style to-morrow. Clem understands his business and will serve nothing but the best of everything. He has secured a first-class cook and will keep a restaurant second to none this side of San Francisco.
Humpty Dumpty's Picnic.
On Wednesday, Oct. 26th, we are to be favored with the Andrews & Stockwell's Ideal Pantomime and Star Specialty company, a very large organization composed of pantomime, specialty and spectacular artists. In the pantomime department the familiar names of Audy Morris, the clown; Ida Mausey, the graceful columbine; Dan'l McCarthy, the mirth provoking pantomime, and numerous other celebrities appear. The specialty department is remarkably strong. The musical genius Bernard McCreedy; the great American juggler, Leonzo; the wonderful calisthenic and antipodian artists, the Morosco Bros., and the eccentric and witty Dutch comedian, Will H. Bray; the handsome and bewitching lady song and dance and skipping rope artist, May Smith; the Moores, Chas. and Carrie, skatorian artists; the gymnastic marvel Frank Monroe. This company has grand scenery and magnificent costumes which are shown to good advantage in the spectacular department.
The ladies all think the Royal Sewing Machines for sale by Osburn & Shoemaker are just perfection. They turn either way and sew straight along—run easy and noiseless. Go and see them by all means.
